

EX-GOV. JOHN P. ALTGELD DIES AFTER BOER SPEECH.

Stricken by Apoplexy at Close of Impassioned Appeal in Behalf of Prisoners in the Concentration Camps, Delivered at Great Meeting in Joliet, Ill.—Had Long Been in Ill-Health.

JOLIET, Ill., March 12.—Ex-Gov. John P. Altgeld died in room 58, Hotel Munroe, this morning at 7:09 o'clock. He had been unconscious since midnight.

Mr. Altgeld was the principal speaker at a pro-Boer mass-meeting last night in the Joliet Theatre.

Just at the close of his speech a sudden dizziness seized him and he was assisted from the stage. The meeting proceeded, the audience not realizing what had happened. Mr. Altgeld was taken to the door of the theatre, where several vomiting spells seized him.

This continued for nearly an hour and was so pronounced he could not be removed to the hotel.

Pugged Not to Alarm Wife.

Physicians were hastily summoned and Mr. Altgeld was carried to the hotel across the street. He retained consciousness and urged the newspaper men to keep the affair quiet for fear of alarming his wife. Shortly before midnight he became unconscious.

He remained in this condition until his death. At 3:41 this morning it was thought he had died, but he revived and from that time until shortly before the end showed great vitality, although he made no move.

Cerebral Hemorrhage Cause.

The medical men here had a banquet last night at which Dr. J. B. Herrick of the Rush Medical College of Chicago delivered a lecture on heart disease. He and other physicians were called from the banquet to attend the patient. They remained with him the balance of the night. When the end came they worked his arteries to revive respiration, but all to no purpose. The cause of death is given as cerebral hemorrhage, there having been an apoplectic seizure of the brain.

The vomiting at first was taken to indicate pneumonia poisoning, but it was determined this was due to different cause. The cause of the trouble, the physicians desire to hold a post-mortem if relatives will agree.

Spoke for Relief of Boers.

Mr. Altgeld came to Joliet yesterday afternoon, having been advertised as the principal orator for the big Will County Pro-Boer meeting. He confessed that he was not in the best of health, having been troubled with some apparently simple stomach ailment.

He was not willing to allow that to interfere with his speech, however, the interest in the South African struggle having been heightened by the announcement of the Boer success in capturing Gen. Methuen. It was noted during the address that the ex-Governor threw an unusual amount of energy and feeling into his words and the collapse of the physical nature resulted from overstrained his already weakened physical powers.

Ill Since Bank Failed.

Ever since the failure of the Globe Savings Bank in 1892, in which he was involved, Mr. Altgeld had not been a well man and for some months after the Spaulding crash it was feared that his life was only a question of a short time. Even when serving his last year as Governor his health was not good.

When it was learned that he was a victim of locomotor ataxia his friends gave him up. But he rallied, although he was never again his old vigorous self.

Lately, however, the disease marked him strongly and quite recently his appearance caused grave forebodings and anxiety. His mind was just as clear and active as of old, but though the spirit was willing the flesh was weak.

Clarence Darow, a life-long friend and later a law partner of the ex-Governor, reached here this morning. He said that the Governor died as he had lived, pleading the cause of the lowly.

Help for the "Reconciliators."

Mr. Altgeld, in his speech, which was fitted to his last, declared that all gratitude to Gov. Yates for issuing a proclamation soliciting assistance for the Boer women and children in their concentration camps which the British are maintaining in South Africa.

The speaker said that the people of America had raised a large sum of money with which to relieve the distress of the Boer women and children, but were unable to send it to them because Lord Roberts, the British commander at Warburg, had refused to accept it. He further charged that Lord Roberts had had for years meddled in American affairs.

There were eighteen counts and specific charges against the British minister. He said in substance: "Just before the beginning of the Spanish war, I was in London, representing the aristocracy, meddled in our affairs and tried to unite the government of Europe in making a joint protest against America's interference on behalf of Cuba. But when the American people rose and the old sympathy for the Boer women and children in their concentration camps which the British are maintaining in South Africa.

The speaker said that the people of America had raised a large sum of money with which to relieve the distress of the Boer women and children, but were unable to send it to them because Lord Roberts, the British commander at Warburg, had refused to accept it. He further charged that Lord Roberts had had for years meddled in American affairs.

There were eighteen counts and specific charges against the British minister. He said in substance: "Just before the beginning of the Spanish war, I was in London, representing the aristocracy, meddled in our affairs and tried to unite the government of Europe in making a joint protest against America's interference on behalf of Cuba. But when the American people rose and the old sympathy for the Boer women and children in their concentration camps which the British are maintaining in South Africa.

There were eighteen counts and specific charges against the British minister. He said in substance: "Just before the beginning of the Spanish war, I was in London, representing the aristocracy, meddled in our affairs and tried to unite the government of Europe in making a joint protest against America's interference on behalf of Cuba. But when the American people rose and the old sympathy for the Boer women and children in their concentration camps which the British are maintaining in South Africa.

There were eighteen counts and specific charges against the British minister. He said in substance: "Just before the beginning of the Spanish war, I was in London, representing the aristocracy, meddled in our affairs and tried to unite the government of Europe in making a joint protest against America's interference on behalf of Cuba. But when the American people rose and the old sympathy for the Boer women and children in their concentration camps which the British are maintaining in South Africa.

JOHN P. ALTGELD.

STRIKING SAYINGS BY EX-GOV. ALTGELD.

The only hope of the workingman is to stand together. Since capital stands together it is a mere matter of self-preservation.

Notwithstanding the oceans of abuse hurled at me for pardoning the Anarchists, not a man in America has yet attempted to show that I was wrong, and there is not an honest lawyer in the United States but what will, after a careful examination of the reasons as I have given them, say that I was right.

I believe that the tolling masses are entitled to justice, and I have lifted my hand to secure it for them whenever I could.

Standing armies are menaces to the peace and happiness of all nations, and they will be none the less so because one is established within the borders of this Republic.

The trusts constitute the head, the shoulders, the spine, the limbs and the soul of the Republican party of today. They own, control and direct it. They have erased every great motto from its banners and have substituted a vulgar dollar mark.

Government by injunction is incompatible with republican institutions, and if it is to be sustained then there is an end to trial by jury in our country, and instead of being governed by law we will be subjected to government by judges.

The judicial branch of the Government is just as much subject to the criticism of the American people as are the legislative or executive branches, and it needs this criticism more than does either of the others.

ALTGELD ONE OF THE WORLD'S PUBLICISTS.

John P. Altgeld was one of the most noted publicists of the West. He was born in Prussia in 1846. In 1892 he was elected Governor of Illinois.

The most successful and out of his term.

He became seriously troubled. His health deteriorated principally in Chicago, near the city of Chicago.

He was not in the best of health, having been troubled with some apparently simple stomach ailment.

He was not willing to allow that to interfere with his speech, however, the interest in the South African struggle having been heightened by the announcement of the Boer success in capturing Gen. Methuen. It was noted during the address that the ex-Governor threw an unusual amount of energy and feeling into his words and the collapse of the physical nature resulted from overstrained his already weakened physical powers.

Ill Since Bank Failed.

Ever since the failure of the Globe Savings Bank in 1892, in which he was involved, Mr. Altgeld had not been a well man and for some months after the Spaulding crash it was feared that his life was only a question of a short time. Even when serving his last year as Governor his health was not good.

When it was learned that he was a victim of locomotor ataxia his friends gave him up. But he rallied, although he was never again his old vigorous self.

Lately, however, the disease marked him strongly and quite recently his appearance caused grave forebodings and anxiety. His mind was just as clear and active as of old, but though the spirit was willing the flesh was weak.

Clarence Darow, a life-long friend and later a law partner of the ex-Governor, reached here this morning. He said that the Governor died as he had lived, pleading the cause of the lowly.

Help for the "Reconciliators."

Mr. Altgeld, in his speech, which was fitted to his last, declared that all gratitude to Gov. Yates for issuing a proclamation soliciting assistance for the Boer women and children in their concentration camps which the British are maintaining in South Africa.

The speaker said that the people of America had raised a large sum of money with which to relieve the distress of the Boer women and children, but were unable to send it to them because Lord Roberts, the British commander at Warburg, had refused to accept it. He further charged that Lord Roberts had had for years meddled in American affairs.

There were eighteen counts and specific charges against the British minister. He said in substance: "Just before the beginning of the Spanish war, I was in London, representing the aristocracy, meddled in our affairs and tried to unite the government of Europe in making a joint protest against America's interference on behalf of Cuba. But when the American people rose and the old sympathy for the Boer women and children in their concentration camps which the British are maintaining in South Africa.

There were eighteen counts and specific charges against the British minister. He said in substance: "Just before the beginning of the Spanish war, I was in London, representing the aristocracy, meddled in our affairs and tried to unite the government of Europe in making a joint protest against America's interference on behalf of Cuba. But when the American people rose and the old sympathy for the Boer women and children in their concentration camps which the British are maintaining in South Africa.

There were eighteen counts and specific charges against the British minister. He said in substance: "Just before the beginning of the Spanish war, I was in London, representing the aristocracy, meddled in our affairs and tried to unite the government of Europe in making a joint protest against America's interference on behalf of Cuba. But when the American people rose and the old sympathy for the Boer women and children in their concentration camps which the British are maintaining in South Africa.

There were eighteen counts and specific charges against the British minister. He said in substance: "Just before the beginning of the Spanish war, I was in London, representing the aristocracy, meddled in our affairs and tried to unite the government of Europe in making a joint protest against America's interference on behalf of Cuba. But when the American people rose and the old sympathy for the Boer women and children in their concentration camps which the British are maintaining in South Africa.

There were eighteen counts and specific charges against the British minister. He said in substance: "Just before the beginning of the Spanish war, I was in London, representing the aristocracy, meddled in our affairs and tried to unite the government of Europe in making a joint protest against America's interference on behalf of Cuba. But when the American people rose and the old sympathy for the Boer women and children in their concentration camps which the British are maintaining in South Africa.

MANY COUPLES CHARGE CUPID WITH POOR AIM.

Divorce Courts Kept Busy Listening to the Plaints of the Mismatched.

When Benjamin F. Amden, the respondent named by Alexander Schmitt, a boy husband, in his action for absolute divorce, admitted that he met Mrs. Charlotte M. Schmitt as a fellow-boarder in Lafayette avenue, Brooklyn, last September and that they registered at the Hotel Grand, Manhattan, Feb. 22 as "J. P. Muller and wife," Justice Tenax questioned him closely.

Decision in the case was withheld.

Husband in Sing Sing.
Anna Kemper, whose husband, Charles Kemper, is now in Sing Sing Prison for bigamy, asked Justice Tenax for an absolute divorce in the Supreme Court today.

Decision was reserved.

Junio's Bonds Galling.
Having amended her complaint so as to add to her maiden name that of McCluskey, which she claims was never legally hers, and appearing as Mrs. Mary Frances McCluskey, Junio, a beautiful woman, a veritable Juno, tried again today for an annulment of her marriage to Edward Henry McCluskey. She charges him with bigamy. Decision was reserved.

Fred Solomon, Defendant.
Minnie Sutton Besque is asking Justice Tenax for a divorce from Fred Solomon, leader of the Broadway Theatre Orchestra. Solomon acknowledges relations with "Lida Lewis," of the "Sleeping Beauty and the Beast" company.

Action Divided Town.
BINGHAMPTON, N. Y., March 12.—A divorce action which has divided the town against itself has been decided by the awarding of a decree to Mrs. Alice V. Greenwood, who sued Fred C. Greenwood, postmaster of the town of Port Jervis.

Decree in Thirty Minutes.
NEWARK, N. J., March 12.—The divorce record was broken today when, within half an hour of the beginning of a hearing, Herbert Mead was granted a decree from his wife, Ollie, on statutory grounds.

Big Earnings for Tobacco Trust.
The stockholders of the American Tobacco Company held their annual meeting today at No. 101 First street. The old board of directors was re-elected for a term of three years, with the exception of H. D. Lee, who was succeeded by J. C. Duke. The board is composed as follows: James B. Duke, Benjamin N. Duke, George Arents, J. B. Cobb, George W. Watts and C. C. Duke.

The report of Treasurer H. D. Lee shows net earnings for the year, after deducting all charges and expenses of management, of $6,971,143.

The dividends paid in 1901 were: Eight per cent on preferred stock $11,200,000; six per cent on common stock of the issue of May 1, 1898, $18,800,000.

The surplus on Dec. 31, 1901 was $1,388,000. The surplus on Dec. 31, 1902 was $2,284,375.66, after deducting the six per cent dividend on common stock amounting to $1,200,000.

The capital stock consists of $10,000,000 of preferred and $4,000,000 of common stock. The most enlightened and progressive managers of the old world is the German Emperor. Within the last ten years he has brought Germany to practically a unanimous support of subsidies by the German merchant marine.

His rapidly overtaken that of Great Britain.

Mr. Dewey referring to subsidies paid by foreign governments said: "One of the most enlightened and progressive managers of the old world is the German Emperor. Within the last ten years he has brought Germany to practically a unanimous support of subsidies by the German merchant marine."

His rapidly overtaken that of Great Britain.

Mr. Dewey referring to subsidies paid by foreign governments said: "One of the most enlightened and progressive managers of the old world is the German Emperor. Within the last ten years he has brought Germany to practically a unanimous support of subsidies by the German merchant marine."

His rapidly overtaken that of Great Britain.

Mr. Dewey referring to subsidies paid by foreign governments said: "One of the most enlightened and progressive managers of the old world is the German Emperor. Within the last ten years he has brought Germany to practically a unanimous support of subsidies by the German merchant marine."

His rapidly overtaken that of Great Britain.

Mr. Dewey referring to subsidies paid by foreign governments said: "One of the most enlightened and progressive managers of the old world is the German Emperor. Within the last ten years he has brought Germany to practically a unanimous support of subsidies by the German merchant marine."

His rapidly overtaken that of Great Britain.

Mr. Dewey referring to subsidies paid by foreign governments said: "One of the most enlightened and progressive managers of the old world is the German Emperor. Within the last ten years he has brought Germany to practically a unanimous support of subsidies by the German merchant marine."

His rapidly overtaken that of Great Britain.

Mr. Dewey referring to subsidies paid by foreign governments said: "One of the most enlightened and progressive managers of the old world is the German Emperor. Within the last ten years he has brought Germany to practically a unanimous support of subsidies by the German merchant marine."

His rapidly overtaken that of Great Britain.

Mr. Dewey referring to subsidies paid by foreign governments said: "One of the most enlightened and progressive managers of the old world is the German Emperor. Within the last ten years he has brought Germany to practically a unanimous support of subsidies by the German merchant marine."

His rapidly overtaken that of Great Britain.

Mr. Dewey referring to subsidies paid by foreign governments said: "One of the most enlightened and progressive managers of the old world is the German Emperor. Within the last ten years he has brought Germany to practically a unanimous support of subsidies by the German merchant marine."

His rapidly overtaken that of Great Britain.

Mr. Dewey referring to subsidies paid by foreign governments said: "One of the most enlightened and progressive managers of the old world is the German Emperor. Within the last ten years he has brought Germany to practically a unanimous support of subsidies by the German merchant marine."

His rapidly overtaken that of Great Britain.

Mr. Dewey referring to subsidies paid by foreign governments said: "One of the most enlightened and progressive managers of the old world is the German Emperor. Within the last ten years he has brought Germany to practically a unanimous support of subsidies by the German merchant marine."

His rapidly overtaken that of Great Britain.

Mr. Dewey referring to subsidies paid by foreign governments said: "One of the most enlightened and progressive managers of the old world is the German Emperor. Within the last ten years he has brought Germany to practically a unanimous support of subsidies by the German merchant marine."

His rapidly overtaken that of Great Britain.

Mr. Dewey referring to subsidies paid by foreign governments said: "One of the most enlightened and progressive managers of the old world is the German Emperor. Within the last ten years he has brought Germany to practically a unanimous support of subsidies by the German merchant marine."

His rapidly overtaken that of Great Britain.

Mr. Dewey referring to subsidies paid by foreign governments said: "One of the most enlightened and progressive managers of the old world is the German Emperor. Within the last ten years he has brought Germany to practically a unanimous support of subsidies by the German merchant marine."

His rapidly overtaken that of Great Britain.

Mr. Dewey referring to subsidies paid by foreign governments said: "One of the most enlightened and progressive managers of the old world is the German Emperor. Within the last ten years he has brought Germany to practically a unanimous support of subsidies by the German merchant marine."

His rapidly overtaken that of Great Britain.

Mr. Dewey referring to subsidies paid by foreign governments said: "One of the most enlightened and progressive managers of the old world is the German Emperor. Within the last ten years he has brought Germany to practically a unanimous support of subsidies by the German merchant marine."

His rapidly overtaken that of Great Britain.

Mr. Dewey referring to subsidies paid by foreign governments said: "One of the most enlightened and progressive managers of the old world is the German Emperor. Within the last ten years he has brought Germany to practically a unanimous support of subsidies by the German merchant marine."

His rapidly overtaken that of Great Britain.

Mr. Dewey referring to subsidies paid by foreign governments said: "One of the most enlightened and progressive managers of the old world is the German Emperor. Within the last ten years he has brought Germany to practically a unanimous support of subsidies by the German merchant marine."

His rapidly overtaken that of Great Britain.

Mr. Dewey referring to subsidies paid by foreign governments said: "One of the most enlightened and progressive managers of the old world is the German Emperor. Within the last ten years he has brought Germany to practically a unanimous support of subsidies by the German merchant marine."

His rapidly overtaken that of Great Britain.

Mr. Dewey referring to subsidies paid by foreign governments said: "One of the most enlightened and progressive managers of the old world is the German Emperor. Within the last ten years he has brought Germany to practically a unanimous support of subsidies by the German merchant marine."

His rapidly overtaken that of Great Britain.

Mr. Dewey referring to subsidies paid by foreign governments said: "One of the most enlightened and progressive managers of the old world is the German Emperor. Within the last ten years he has brought Germany to practically a unanimous support of subsidies by the German merchant marine."

LEWIS NIXON HOPE OF THE DEMOCRACY —SENATOR DEWEY.

COMPLIMENT TO NEW HEAD OF TAMMANY.

Senator Quotes Him on Shipbuilding in Speech on the Subsidy Bill.

WASHINGTON, March 12.—Senator Dewey, speaking in the Senate today on the Ship Subsidy bill, said that one of the greatest handicaps to the Democracy was Tammany.

But great hope for the party had been lifted up by placing Lewis Nixon, a shipbuilder, at its head.

He moved from a paper read by Mr. Nixon, in which he said that when the United States could build several hundred merchant ships every year it would be able to compete with foreign shipbuilders, but not until then.

Mr. Dewey said he did not know whether J. Pierpont Morgan had purchased the Lewis and not, but if so it was because it could be operated at a profit, but there was no intention of building the ships under the American flag.

Mr. Dewey referring to subsidies paid by foreign governments said: "One of the most enlightened and progressive managers of the old world is the German Emperor. Within the last ten years he has brought Germany to practically a unanimous support of subsidies by the German merchant marine."

His rapidly overtaken that of Great Britain.

Mr. Dewey referring to subsidies paid by foreign governments said: "One of the most enlightened and progressive managers of the old world is the German Emperor. Within the last ten years he has brought Germany to practically a unanimous support of subsidies by the German merchant marine."

His rapidly overtaken that of Great Britain.

Mr. Dewey referring to subsidies paid by foreign governments said: "One of the most enlightened and progressive managers of the old world is the German Emperor. Within the last ten years he has brought Germany to practically a unanimous support of subsidies by the German merchant marine."

His rapidly overtaken that of Great Britain.

Mr. Dewey referring to subsidies paid by foreign governments said: "One of the most enlightened and progressive managers of the old world is the German Emperor. Within the last ten years he has brought Germany to practically a unanimous support of subsidies by the German merchant marine."

His rapidly overtaken that of Great Britain.

Mr. Dewey referring to subsidies paid by foreign governments said: "One of the most enlightened and progressive managers of the old world is the German Emperor. Within the last ten years he has brought Germany to practically a unanimous support of subsidies by the German merchant marine."

His rapidly overtaken that of Great Britain.

Mr. Dewey referring to subsidies paid by foreign governments said: "One of the most enlightened and progressive managers of the old world is the German Emperor. Within the last ten years he has brought Germany to practically a unanimous support of subsidies by the German merchant marine."

His rapidly overtaken that of Great Britain.

Mr. Dewey referring to subsidies paid by foreign governments said: "One of the most enlightened and progressive managers of the old world is the German Emperor. Within the last ten years he has brought Germany to practically a unanimous support of subsidies by the German merchant marine."

His rapidly overtaken that of Great Britain.

Mr. Dewey referring to subsidies paid by foreign governments said: "One of the most enlightened and progressive managers of the old world is the German Emperor. Within the last ten years he has brought Germany to practically a unanimous support of subsidies by the German merchant marine."

His rapidly overtaken that of Great Britain.

Mr. Dewey referring to subsidies paid by foreign governments said: "One of the most enlightened and progressive managers of the old world is the German Emperor. Within the last ten years he has brought Germany to practically a unanimous support of subsidies by the German merchant marine."

His rapidly overtaken that of Great Britain.

Mr. Dewey referring to subsidies paid by foreign governments said: "One of the most enlightened and progressive managers of the old world is the German Emperor. Within the last ten years he has brought Germany to practically a unanimous support of subsidies by the German merchant marine."

His rapidly overtaken that of Great Britain.

Mr. Dewey referring to subsidies paid by foreign governments said: "One of the most enlightened and progressive managers of the old world is the German Emperor. Within the last ten years he has brought Germany to practically a unanimous support of subsidies by the German merchant marine."

His rapidly overtaken that of Great Britain.

Mr. Dewey referring to subsidies paid by foreign governments said: "One of the most enlightened and progressive managers of the old world is the German Emperor. Within the last ten years he has brought Germany to practically a unanimous support of subsidies by the German merchant marine."

His rapidly overtaken that of Great Britain.

Mr. Dewey referring to subsidies paid by foreign governments said: "One of the most enlightened and progressive managers of the old world is the German Emperor. Within the last ten years he has brought Germany to practically a unanimous support of subsidies by the German merchant marine."

His rapidly overtaken that of Great Britain.

Mr. Dewey referring to subsidies paid by foreign governments said: "One of the most enlightened and progressive managers of the old world is the German Emperor. Within the last ten years he has brought Germany to practically a unanimous support of subsidies by the German merchant marine."

His rapidly overtaken that of Great Britain.

Mr. Dewey referring to subsidies paid by foreign governments said: "One of the most enlightened and progressive managers of the old world is the German Emperor. Within the last ten years he has brought Germany to practically a unanimous support of subsidies by the German merchant marine."

His rapidly overtaken that of Great Britain.

Mr. Dewey referring to subsidies paid by foreign governments said: "One of the most enlightened and progressive managers of the old world is the German Emperor. Within the last ten years he has brought Germany to practically a unanimous support of subsidies by the German merchant marine."

His rapidly overtaken that of Great Britain.

Mr. Dewey referring to subsidies paid by foreign governments said: "One of the most enlightened and progressive managers of the old world is the German Emperor. Within the last ten years he has brought Germany to practically a unanimous support of subsidies by the German merchant marine."

INTENSE SUFFERING

From Dyspepsia and Stomach Trouble:

Instantly Relieved and Permanently Cured by Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

A New Discovery, Not a Patent Medicine.

Dr. Redwell relates an interesting account of what he considers a remarkable case of acute stomach trouble and chronic dyspepsia cured by the use of the new discovery, Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

He says: "The patient was a man who had suffered, to my knowledge, for years with dyspepsia. Everything he ate seemed to sour and create gases in the stomach. He had pains like rheumatism in the back, shoulder blades and limbs, fulness and distress after eating, poor appetite and loss of flesh. The heart became affected, causing palpitation and sleeplessness at night.

"I gave him powerful nerve tonics and blood remedies, but to no purpose. As an experiment I finally bought a 50-cent package of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets at a drug store and gave them to him. Almost immediate relief was given, and after he had used four boxes he was in all appearance fully cured.

"There was no more acidity or sour, watery risings, no bloating after meals, the appetite was vigorous and he had gained between 12 and 15 pounds in weight of solid, healthy flesh.

"Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are advertised and sold in drug stores, yet consider them a most valuable addition to any physician's stock of remedies, as they are perfectly harmless and can be given to children or invalids or in any condition of the stomach with perfect safety, being harmless and containing nothing but fruit and vegetable essences, pure pepsin and Golden Seal.

"Without any question they are the safest, most effective cure for indigestion, biliousness, constipation and all derangements of the stomach, however slight or severe."

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are advertised and sold in drug stores, yet consider them a most valuable addition to any physician's stock of remedies, as they are perfectly harmless and can be given to children or invalids or in any condition of the stomach with perfect safety, being harmless and containing nothing but fruit and vegetable essences, pure pepsin and Golden Seal.